CHAMBERLAIN GIVEN COMMONS' APPROVAL OF DEAL WITH ITALY

Agreement Made With Il Duce to Come Into Effect—Conquest of Ethiopia Will Be Recognized—By Great Britain—Spain No Longer Considered Menace to Peace

LONDON, Nov. 2 (P).—The House of Commons tonight endorsed Prime Minister Chamberlain's intention of putting into effect the Anglo-Italian agreement and British recognition of the conquest of Ethiopia by Italy.

At the end of a day-long debate, the deal of approval was attached by a vote of 345 to 138, while off the east coast the Spanish civil war, much discussed during the debate, was being brought close to England as a Spanish insurgent naval craft allied and sank a Spanish merchantman.

FEW NON-VOTERS

Labor and Liberals piled their strength against the Government forces in the House, with only a small group of Conservatives abstaining from voting.

The Opposition based their case on the charge that the agreement was another surrender to force and another had bargained with the totalitarian states, the cumulative effect of which might become disastrous to Great Britain in the future.

They insisted in addition that Ethiopia had not been conquered—natives were still in control of vast areas—and to recognize Italian sovereignty was simply to approve the principle of unprovoked aggression.

During the debate, Richard Butler, Foreign Under-Secretary, announced that the Government had decided to support the agreement.

TWO SEATS GO TO GOVERNMENT

Union Nationale Candidates Win in Quebec Provincial By-Elections

MONTREAL, Nov. 2 (P).—Quebec's Union Nationale Government snatched the Montreal St. Louis Legislative Assembly seat from the Liberals and held the Stanstead County seat against a Liberal challenge today in two by-elections that preserved the two-year-old Administration's unbeaten record at the polls.

Louis Fitch, K.C., carried the metropolitan riding by a scant sixty-nine votes over Raulo Trepanier, Labor leader campaigning as a "Liberal-Democrat" with official Liberal support, and Henri Grin, lawyer from Coaticook, was returned by 612 votes over Dr. E. C. Cabana of Masog in Stanstead, both on the basis of unofficial tabulations.

SAYS FIGHT NOT OVER

Trepanier, president of Montreal Trades and Labor Council and a vice-president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, said he would call for a recount if tomorrow's official check upheld his lawyer opponent's majority. "The fight is not over yet," he said.

The vote from forty-seven polls in St. Louis was 1,539 for Fitch and 1,480 for Trepanier.

The individual count for the two candidates was not available tonight from Stanstead's forty-four polling precincts.

In the turbulent St. Louis voting, marked by twenty arrests, the Liberal party's representation for the city riding was broken for the first time in twenty-two years.

Japan Ends Connection With League

GENEVA, Nov. 2 (P).—Elji Arai, Japanese Minister to Switzerland, talked today with Joseph Avenol, general secretary of the League of Nations, in a conversation regarded as ending all connections between Japan and the League.

The Japanese Minister today had instructions from Tokyo to notify Avenol Japan was ending co-operation with the League's various committees. The action was a result of the League Council's decision on September 27 to invoke against Japan Article XVII of the Covenant, the first step against economic penalties.

Boundaries of Czechoslovakia Are Once More Mapped—German and Italian Arbitrators Make Award Taking Wide Strip of Territory From Prague Rule

VIENNA, Nov. 2 (P).—German and Italian mediators today remapped the boundaries of Czechoslovakia, awarding Hungary the major portion of land and population she claimed from the shrinking republic.

Though official figures were lacking, it was estimated that Hungary gained 4,875 square miles and 860,000 inhabitants at the expense of Czechoslovakia, which already has lost Sudetenland to Germany and has lost Sudentenland to Germany and has lost Sudentenland to Germany.

Foreign Ministers Count Ciano, of Italy, and Joachim von Ribbentrop, of Germany, in a short meeting today gave Hungary a wide strip of the territory she demanded, including Uzhhorod, capital of autonomous Ruthenia, and the only railway connecting Ruthenia with Slovakia.

In the disputed region only Bratislava, on the Danube, near the juncture of Czechoslovakia, Hungary and Germany, was left to the central Prague Government along with the City of Nitra in South-western Slovakia.

STRIKE ENDS AS TROOPS ARRIVE

Month-Old Walkout in Ohio Called Off—Governor Takes Part

MIDDLETOWN, O., Nov. 2 (P).—Committee for Industrial Organization organizer, Sam Sponseller, announced tonight that members of the Pioneer Workers' Union had voted to call off their month-old strike at the P. Lorillard Co. tobacco plant here at midnight. The vote was 577 to 1, he said.

The announcement came as police waited on the city's outskirts to escort to their quarters 500 Ohio National Guardsmen ordered here by Gov. Martin L. Davey for the plant's scheduled reopening tomorrow.

Governor Davey, arch foe of the Committee for Industrial Organization, ordered the National Guardsmen here after condemning what he described as a "brutal, lawless and tyrannical invasion of this state by the C.I.O. high command."

FLAYS C.I.O. CHAIRMAN

Davey termed John L. Lewis, chairman, the "most dangerous man in America." He said the C.I.O. planned a series of strikes after he retired as governor in January. Ohio C.I.O. leaders denied they had such plans.

Davey last year ordered troops into "Little Steel" strike areas, thereby virtually ending a C.I.O. strike aimed at obtaining contracts with two steel companies. He was defeated for re-election in August.

Cow Proclaimed Best in History

TROY, Ont., Nov. 2 (P).—Regis-borne Alice Alcitra, three-year-old Holstein-Friesian cow from the herd of Osborne Sager, of Troy, was proclaimed greatest producer of milk in North American history today by Government officials and prominent dairymen of the United States and Canada.

THREE-YEAR-OLD TAKEN TO HOSPITAL In Critical Condition—Was Found Unconscious

NAICAM, Sask., Nov. 2 (P).—Attacked by vicious pigs, three-year-old Gerald Villers was taken to Mel-ford Hospital today in critical condition. All his clothing, the calf of one leg and some flesh from his side were eaten by the pigs that attacked him on a road about one-half mile from his home.

His five-year-old sister, walking with him at the time of the attack, ran to neighbors for help but had difficulty in convincing them pigs had attacked the child. When the neighbors finally arrived at the scene of the attack, they found the child unconscious.

JAPAN GIVES NOTICE OF PLANS FOR DOMINATION OF EAST ASIA

Declares "Immutable Policy" for Far Eastern Reconstruction After End of Present War With China—Germany and Italy Singled Out for Special Expression of Gratitude

Indicates China Considered As Under Japanese Control

TOKIO, Nov. 2 (P).—Japan tonight gave notice of her intention to force China into a solid bloc with Manchukuo and the Japanese Empire for the political and economic domination of East Asia.

Extension of domination over China to carry out Japan's "immutable policy" for Far Eastern reconstruction after the present war with China was announced in a formal statement in connection with tomorrow's national holiday on the birthday anniversary of the late Emperor Meiji.

Already Tokyo rules 575,000 square miles of the Asiatic mainland—Korea, annexed in 1910, and Manchukuo, a puppet empire created out of Manchuria by conquest in 1931-33. That territory has been divided by the present war, which started July 7, 1937, and thus far has brought 575,000 square miles of thirteen Chinese provinces under at least nominal Japanese rule.

SPECIAL GRATITUDE

Only those nations "which are in sympathy with us"—apparently Germany and Italy, with whom Japan is allied in an anti-communist pact—were singled out for Japan's gratitude in the Government statement. Other Western powers were ignored.

"What Japan seeks is establishment of a new order which will insure permanent stability in East Asia," said the statement. "In this lies the ultimate purpose of our military campaign."

"This new order will have its foundation a tripartite relationship"

NEW BASE IS IN SZECHWAN

Chiang Hopes to Lure Japanese Into Vast Western Hinterland

CHANGTU, China, Nov. 2 (P).—Szechwan Province—most populous province of China proper—has become the new military base of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek in his fight against Japan.

On the western fringe of China proper where the Yangtze River rises to meander 2,000 miles eastward to the sea, Szechwan is booming with military activity.

Soldiers are being recruited and trained. The 53,000,000 civilian population is being requisitioned, factories opened and mines developed.

Highways over which this writer traveled to reach Chengtu, provincial capital, are lined with training camps where 300,000 soldiers are being hardened to join 400,000 Szechwanese already in service.

These figures came from Commander Teng Hsi-hou, Chiang's aide in Szechwan. Szechwan fields have furnished a year's food for an army of 2,700,000. It is estimated Area of the Province is 166,000 square miles.

Machinery from more than 400 factories taken from Japanese-occupied cities of the East is said to be en route to Szechwan for work in heavy metals, chemicals and textiles.

General Chiang has expressed hope of "luring" his Japanese foe into the vast hinterland of the West and at the same time called for resistance behind the Japanese lines.

WORK ON FARMS

TO BE ONLY RELIEF

EDMONTON, Nov. 2 (P).—The only form of relief for Alberta single jobs this winter will be the farm placement plan, officials of the Provincial Bureau of Relief and Public Welfare announced here today.

The officials issued the warning with connection with an announcement that single unemployed in Edmonton, Calgary and other cities were refusing farm jobs, although "several hundred" Alberta farmers are seeking men under the Dominion-Provincial plan.

Mr. Pringle, who in the ordinary course would retire on November 15, was requested to remain in the service of the city until the conclusion of the present session of the Provincial Legislature.

EDMONTON, Nov. 2 (P).—Communist Party officials said today they feared Harry Bowring, of Athabasca, Alta., and Edward Zdanew, of Lethbridge, Alta., were among five Canadians believed executed by Spanish insurgents. They left Edmonton at the outbreak of the civil war and fought on the Government side.

UNITED STATES SENDS PROTEST TO JAPAN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2 (P).—The United States registered at Tokyo today a vigorous protest against the killing of a three-year-old American girl in China. Ambassador Joseph C. Grew demanded an investigation of the killing of Phoebe Nyhus and the wounding of her mother and sister, Ruthie, when Japanese airplanes destroyed the residence of her father, Arthur E. Nyhus, of Fertile, Ia., at Tungpeh on Monday of last week.

INSURGENTS ATTACK IN EASTERN SPAIN

BREDAIE, France, Nov. 2 (P).—Insurgent military dispatches reported today the insurgent offensive had developed into a broad frontal attack on Governmental lines in the Ebro Valley region of Eastern Spain. The drive, which first centred on the line toward Mora de Ebro, fanned out along both flanks, extending the battle along a sector nearly ten miles long.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 3 (P).—Chinese officials of the Japanese-guided Governments of Peiping and Nanking, were reported today to have agreed on establishment of a Japanese-dominated Central Government of China, "based on the will of the people." Domei, Japanese News Agency, which published the report, said separate local administrations under Japanese auspices would be set up at newly-captured Canton and Hankow before final amalgamation of the Government.

FALL SESSION PLAN DROPPED

Parliament Not to Be Summoned Before New Year, Minister States

OTTAWA, Nov. 2 (P).—Possibility of Parliament meeting before Christmas appeared more remote tonight with the statement of Rt. Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice and acting prime minister, that "prospects are it will meet at the beginning of the New Year."

Following a cabinet meeting late this afternoon, Mr. Lapointe said only routine matters had been dealt with. While there was no decision as to the calling of Parliament, he said it was unlikely to be summoned before Christmas. Earlier, it had been reported the date would be chosen today.

"We are not sure it would expedite matters if we were to meet before Christmas," Mr. Lapointe said. He did not know what date the Government would aim at for prorogation and the Government had not been advised the exact date or month the King or Queen would visit Canada next year.

NO DEFINITE DATE

"All we have been told about the visit of Their Majesties is that it will be early next summer," Mr. Lapointe said. The Government had no advice as to whether the King and Queen would visit Washington or whether they would go on from Canada to other Dominions.

It was made known some time ago that the Government was considering calling Parliament before Christmas in the hope of reaching an earlier prorogation in view of the Royal visit.

Prime Minister Mackenzie King, who has been away more than three weeks on a holiday in the West Indies, is not expected back until "some time next week," Mr. Lapointe said.

Two Thugs Enter Home During Dinner—Escape With $1,000 After Blinding Victims

NORTH VANCOUVER, Nov. 2 (P).—Two armed thugs entered the Lynn Valley home of J. T. Summerfield tonight, bound and gagged the well-known real estate agent and his family and several servants, then fled with $1,000 in jewelry and currency.

The money and valuables were taken from Summerfield's private safe which the bandits forced him to open.

Police reports said the Summerfield family were about to start dinner when the thugs entered and forced everyone in the house at gunpoint to line against the dining room wall. The bandits then bound and gagged their victims.

Protest to Be Sent To Government on Question of Arms

Miss Freda Utley Addresses Large Gathering Here On Subject of "The Crisis in Japan"—Makes Plea for Arms Embargo

EXPRESSING the hope that the people of Great Britain and the United States are going to awaken to the fact that they are responsible for the horrors of destruction in China and that even now at this stage of her aggression Japan could be stopped, Miss Freda Utley, speaking to a large gathering in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium last night, inspired the audience to send a resolution to the Governor-General and the Prime Minister of Canada regarding the export of war material to Japan.

The resolution, drafted by Dr. D. M. Baillie and J. T. Stott, read as follows: "That this meeting of citizens of Victoria demand that an embargo be placed on the supply of all materials for war purposes to the Japanese Government and in this way take effective steps to terminate the slaughter of the Chinese people." The resolution carried the full endorsement of the meeting.

AUTHOR OF BOOKS

Introduced by the chairman, Mrs. H. P. Hodges, Miss Utley, a graduate of the London University and lecturer on modern political economy, traveler and special correspondent in the Orient for a well-known English newspaper, brought first-hand information from the war zone of China and gave as the subject of her address "The Crisis in Japan." She stated that Japan was putting up a gigantic bluff and that the war in the Orient was of vital importance to the people of the North American continent. Japan had made it clear to the world that her reason for going to war against China was primarily to prevent the modernization of that country, which it was apparent had begun to develop. Japan assumed that Great Britain would not hinder the aggression.

Japan's peculiar economic, social and political structure was referred to by the speaker.

FEUDAL REMNANTS

"Japan is not a modern state in our sense of the term," Miss Utley continued, pointing out the lack of economic freedom of the great mass of the people. Many excuses, such as space for her over-populated condition, had been given for the conquest of Manchuria and North China, but it was significant that since the conquest of Manchuria not more than 6,000 persons had migrated there from Japan.

It was a myth, that Japan was over-populated, the speaker asserted. The peasants and working classes generally were existing under extremely difficult conditions, described by Miss Utley as feudal remnants in Japan's social life. There were a few great monopoly business houses which control the economic life of the country.

JAPAN'S AIM

The speaker expressed the fear that a desire to maintain their business interests in Japan was the motivating force behind the non-intervention policies of Great Britain and the United States. There was a danger of a betrayal of China to Japan. "China depends upon us," she added, "for we are in a position to bring pressure on both sides." Japan's ultimate aim was to drive all foreign interests out of China, and this constituted a serious danger.

Miss Utley spoke of General Chiang Kai-Shek as the symbol of national unity in China; a man who had shown great strength of will. In spite of a number of opposing factions in the country, the general was looked up to by all as the leader.

The address was sponsored by the recently-formed Democratic Book Club of Victoria.

George Crook was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Henry Wilson, ninety-one-year-old former chairman, was chosen to fill the post of honorary president. Mrs. Annie Ward, Mrs. Emilie Wilkinson, Mrs. J. S. Adams and E. McCavoy will form the board of directors. A. H. Dale was elected auditor.

Several new members were enrolled and a talk on old age pensions was given by J. S. Brandon.

CHAMBERLAIN IS GIVEN APPROVAL

announced the British Government had no intention of granting belligerent rights to insurgent General Franco without prior acceptance of the British plan to withdraw voluntarily from both sides of the Spanish civil war.

NO DATE GIVEN

Mr. Chamberlain has not mentioned a date for the agreement to come into effect, but it was expected to be November 15. Although signed in April, it had been pigeon-holed pending withdrawal of sufficient number of Italian troops from Spain.

In recommending the agreement to the House, Mr. Chamberlain stressed Premier Mussolini's withdrawal of 10,000 infantrymen from Spain, his pledge that all troops be taken home when the non-intervention committee's withdrawal plan goes into operation, and his assurance that no men will be sent to war-ridden Spain.

The Prime Minister also stressed assurances given him at Munich by Chancellor Hitler and Premier Mussolini that Germany and Italy had "no territorial ambitions in Spain."

IMPROVED PROSPECT
The Anglo-Italian agreement, the Prime Minister emphasized, would improve prospects of peace as a whole.

"I say let us put an end here and to any idea that it is desirable to keep any state at arm's length," he declared. "Let us remember that every advance we make toward removing a possible cause of friction upon one subject makes it easier and more probable that we can deal satisfactorily with those which remain still unsettled."

"In my mind," Mr. Chamberlain said at another point, "it is perfectly clear the Spanish question is no longer a menace to the peace of Europe."

Consequently, there is no valid reason why we should not take a step now which obviously would contribute to general appeasement."

Defence will be discussed tomorrow, the third day devoted to winding up parliamentary business before the King opens the new session on November 8. Particular emphasis is expected to be on civilian-defence measures and the Government's new plan to fill the gap and expedite its rearmament programme.

SHARP OPPOSITION
Sharp opposition was expressed in the House to Mr. Chamberlain's arguments that obstacles to making the pact with Italy effective had been removed.

Anthony Eden, who resigned February 20 as Foreign Secretary because of dissatisfaction with Mr. Chamberlain's policies, accused Italy of lacking good faith. Arthur Greenwood, Labor, declared the price of the Anglo-Italian agreement signed the day before last Easter "is going to be paid by the people of Spain."

Mr. Chamberlain sought to justify the accord with Italy on the basis, among other things, of Mussolini's intervention with Chancellor Hitler to bring about the Munich conference in the darkest hour of the September Czechoslovak crisis, and the contentment that the agreement should go into effect, the Prime Minister said the Governments of South Africa, Australia and France had given their approval.

The only European power had refused to acknowledge Italian domination in Ethiopia was Soviet Russia, he said.

An Opposition member interrupted to ask whether Canada and New Zealand had communicated their approval. The Prime Minister said they had not.

NO OCCASION
In Ottawa, R. Hon. Ernest Lapointe, acting Prime Minister, stated there had not been any occasion for the expression of the view of the "Canadian Government," as the Anglo-Italian agreement did not deal with any matters in which Canada had any direct interest.

He said London had kept the Canadian Government informed from time to time both in regard to contents of the agreement and the state of its negotiation.

The Anglo-Italian agreement was designed to be a comprehensive adjustment of all conflicts of interest of the two powers in the Mediterranean, the Near East, Africa and Spain. Its operation has been in abeyance pending fulfillment of one pre-requisite, "a settlement" in the Spanish war.

Mr. Chamberlain cited in support of this, Mussolini's withdrawal of "half" his infantry forces in Spain and a three-fold conditional promise to retire all remaining troops and supply no more troops or flyers.

EDEN'S WARNING
Mr. Eden endorsed the object of bringing peace to Europe by eliminating the causes of war, but warned Great Britain was piling up trouble in making all the concessions.

The time would come, he maintained, when Great Britain would face a crisis more acute than anything in the past, if these policies were continued, and Great Britain might face it alone.

At the time Italian troops and Italian planes were in Spain, Mr. Eden said Italy was a member of the Non-Intervention Committee.

Wilfrid Roberts, of the Liberal Opposition, announced his party was withdrawing its amendment to the Government motion on recognition of the Anglo-Italian accord. In view of Mr. Chamberlain's statement it seemed useless to insist on the amendment, he said, but his party remained convinced Mussolini had territorial designs on Spain.

Opposition speakers charged there were still between 80,000 and 90,000 Italians in Spain and the 10,000 infantrymen recently withdrawn were all "war-weary" ill and wounded.

Mr. Chamberlain maintained the 10,000 withdrawals represented a full 50 per cent of the Italian infantry forces on the insurgent side.

Bela Imredi, with a note of triumph and satisfaction in his voice, announced in a broadcast tonight that the Vienna mediators had given Hungary a large portion of Slovakia.

"For our fatherland it is the first happy day in twenty years," the jubilant Premier said in announcing restoration of Hungarian sovereignty of a portion of the territories she lost as a result of Great War settlement which created Czechoslovakia.

In the streets of Budapest, meanwhile, torchlight processions of veterans and celebrating citizens surged about.

There were shouts of "Heil Hitler" and for Premier Mussolini, of Italy.

HOUSE AVOIDS POLICY ISSUE
Reference to the Provincial Government's gasoline policy and ensuing developments was avoided in the Legislature yesterday, when Mr. Speaker Whitaker ruled R. L. Maitland, K.C., leader of the Opposition, out of order on a question of privilege.

The incident closed, after a brief exchange between Government and Opposition benches.

Rising when the House resumed for the day, Mr. Maitland said he wished to refer to a statement in the press, attributed to the Prime Minister. A brief exchange followed.

Premier Pattullo—I would like to know what the honorable gentleman has in mind?

Mr. Maitland—I have in mind the publication of a statement I did not think the Prime Minister or any other member of this House would ever make.

Mr. Speaker—The honorable leader of the Opposition is out of order, in referring to a newspaper report.

Mr. Maitland—Mr. Speaker, I must appeal from that ruling.

Premier Pattullo—If the matter is one of urgent public importance, he should proceed under the rules.

Mr. Maitland—On a point of privilege, then. It concerns every member of this House. When I see an article in a newspaper or anywhere else that reflects on the dignity of this House, or which is not in the best interests of the province, I am bound to speak.

Premier Pattullo—Mr. Speaker. That is not a point of privilege. The honorable gentleman is not the custodian of the dignity of every member of the House.

Mr. Maitland was ruled out of order, and the incident closed.

HOUSING PLANS ARE DESCRIBED

Trail and Rossland Benefit From Large-Scale Programme—This Year

Between 250 and 300 houses had been erected in Trail and Rossland this year, in housing schemes which had done much for these communities and provided work for large numbers of men, R. P. Burns (Lib., Rossland-Trail) told the Legislature yesterday, speaking in the main debate.

Houses of an average value of $2,300 were erected, to be placed in the hands of their prospective owners on a rental basis of $30 per month in the first year, including all charges.

Mr. Burns praised the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company, Ltd., and told of the company's successful efforts to develop the smelting of complex ores. The company had paid over $3,000,000 in taxes this year, and had proved the mainstay of several communities, affecting the lives of 40,000 persons.

Mr. Burns told of the influx of 560 men from Alberta and Saskatchewan, all of whom he said had found work in his riding. He opened up the border country, and to obviate detours on United States roads to reach points in British Columbia. In closing, he endorsed land settlement and health insurance, speaking briefly on those issues.

THOMAS KING, M.P.P.
Speaking at the end of the day, Thomas King (Lib., Columbia) urged action on the Croft plan of British immigration, stating the Province had nothing to lose by the venture, which would entail the influx of Empire stock and the expenditure of considerable sums within British Columbia.

He advocated the taking over of the Trans-Canada Highway by the Federal Government as a wholly national undertaking, drawing attention to the fact that 800 miles of the way lay within British Columbia, involving an air-line distance of 320 miles from border to coast. The Province would be unable to do its share in completion or in maintaining the highway, he suggested.

Conditions in Columbia he classed as improving, with good crops on farm lands in the present season.

E. T. Kenney (Lib., Skeena) adjourned debate for the day.

Council Prepares to Call for Tenders on Passenger Franchise

Draft Specifications and Instructions to Tenderers For City Service Approved in Principle—Regulatory Powers to Be Retained by Council

At a meeting which lasted for several hours last night, the City Council approved in principle a proposed form of advertisement calling for tenders on a city passenger transportation franchise, proposed specifications and form of tender, and instructions to the tenderers.

Presented in draft form, these proposals were amended in various particulars by the council before being approved, and were then referred to the legal and public-utilities departments for consolidation and submission to the council for final approval later.

Aldermen S. H. Okeill and R. A. C. Dewar opposed the principle of calling for tenders for a transportation system to cover the city only.

Mayor Andrew McGavin pointed out, however, that the council's duty was to look after the need of the city itself. The routes mapped out would extend to the boundaries of Oak Bay, Saanich and Esquimalt, and if those municipalities wished to link up with the city system they could do so, he said.

CLAUSE DELETED
The council eliminated from the draft proposals a clause that would have had the effect of precluding the British Columbia Electric Railway Company from tendering.

It was agreed that the contract granted to the successful tenderer should include regulatory clauses in favor of the council, similar to those expressed in the utilities by-law passed by the council some time ago. Regulatory power over the abandonment of or additions to routes was reserved to the council.

Mayor McGavin was authorized to endeavor to arrange a meeting with the four city members of the Legislative Assembly to discuss the Provincial Government's proposed public utilities legislation and place the views of the city before them in a letter to the council. Elliott Maclean and S. H. Okeill, city council members, recommended that the city should keep a close watch on the progress of the Government's bill.

PROTESTS INTERFERE
Mayor McGavin took strong exception to portions of the report recently presented to a joint meeting of the Chamber of Commerce and the Real Estate Board by a committee composed of members of both bodies.

"This council is a responsible body elected by the people, and it is the duty of the council to carry on without interference from any outside organization," the Mayor declared, when a copy of the report was read.

"We will hear any suggestions that they have to make, and if they are better than ours, we will incorporate them in our own proposals," Mayor McGavin continued. "I don't think we should tolerate any interference from outside sources."

Answering the contention of this chamber and Real Estate Board that the council proposed to deviate from the existing street-car routes in the city, the mayor emphatically repeated that the new transportation system would follow the present routes in the business area.

SUGGESTS PLAN TO AID FARMS

D. W. Strachan, M.P.P., Speaks to Seven-Point Programme

A seven-point programme for improvement of agriculture in British Columbia was sketched out in the Legislature yesterday by D. W. Strachan, freshly returned to the House as Liberal Member for Dewdney. Mr. Strachan made his contribution as the Government pressed on with five members speaking in the main debate.

Reduction of high valuations fixed against land in post-war times, with resultant excessive rates of taxation, he urged as the first point. Some farms of 200 acres were paying $600 in taxes yearly, he insisted.

Taxes for education should be removed from rural lands, where these lands were in actual use, he declared.

Diking assessments should be reduced, as farmers, particularly in the Fraser Valley, could not pay these imposts out of their earnings on the land.

OTHER PROBLEMS
Where land was reclaimed from waste ground, those responsible for adding tillable soil to the Province should receive some of the benefit, by a sharing of reclamation costs with the Province, or by other means.

Interest rates on outstanding indebtedness on the land were too high, Mr. Strachan continued, and if such rates could be reduced to the 2½ per cent paid in Ontario in similar cases, that would be more in keeping with what the land could actually support.

Action was needed to revise freight and express charges, which, through the years, had grown into substantial barriers to trade, the member for Dewdney continued.

Finally, he said, the Province should set up a committee to study subsidiary manufactures, such as would assist farmers in slack seasons of their year.

GERMANY AND EIRE CONCLUDE NEW PACT
DUBLIN, Nov. 2 (AP)—Germany and Eire today completed a commercial agreement. Details of the pact, which replaces a three-year-old agreement expiring December 31, will be published Thursday. Nazi officials sought the new agreement when their trade dropped severely after the signing of the Anglo-Eire Agreement on trade and defence this year.

COURT PASSES NEW EVIDENCE

Late Chief John Syme Documents to Be Examined At Murder Trial

Important documents of the late Chief John Syme concerning the Colebourne case will be produced by the Crown at 10 o'clock this morning at the fourth day of Mrs. Vera Colebourne's second trial on a charge of murdering her husband.

At the Assizes yesterday, Richard C. Lowe, defence counsel for Mrs. Colebourne, submitted that he should be allowed to question Chief H. C. P. Reston in cross-examination without the necessity of producing the documents.

M. B. Jackson, K.C., the Crown prosecutor, instantly replied: "And leave a false impression in the minds of the jury. It was not a public record. It was a private memorandum. Mr. Lowe asks that hearsay evidence be admitted. The documents should be placed in evidence," he asserted.

Following lengthy arguments from both sides on the question, Mr. Justice Fisher ruled the documents should be placed in evidence.

JURY RETIRES
The jury requested to retire while the question of the late chief's documents was debated.

Fifteen witnesses were called by the Crown. It is anticipated that the prosecution's case will be closed this morning.

In giving evidence yesterday, Constable Robert Smith, Oak Bay police, noted $31 was missing from the late Mr. Colebourne's wallet. The constable found the wallet hidden behind a baking pan in the kitchen of the Colebourne dwelling at 2230 Bowker Avenue.

Constable Smith swore he saw the money in the wallet during the preliminary hearing, and was present when the exhibits were handed to the registrar by the clerk of the Oak Bay police court.

CALLS OFFICIAL

Mr. Jackson declared the wallet was returned from the lower court and delivered to the registrar of the Fall Assizes. Mr. Justice Fisher directed that the official be called.

T. Harvey Bamford, deputy Supreme Court stenographer, said he handed over the exhibits when directed by the late Chief Syme. He stated an envelope containing the wallet was not opened in his presence.

Oswald H. C. Barton, deputy Supreme Court registrar, doffed his gown and took the stand. His place was taken by David Reid, County Court registrar.

Mr. Barton swore the envelope, holding the wallet had not been opened. It was placed in the vault with other exhibits, and he gave a receipt without examining the contents of the envelope. Shortly before the Fall Assizes opened, he was asked by Mr. Jackson to open the envelope and the wallet. It was then that the money was found missing, Mr. Barton testified.

OFFERS EXPLANATION

Mr. Jackson verified Mr. Barton's statements in regard to opening the envelope and the wallet. He said certain valuables were handed over to the official administrator, and the $31 may have been included.

Mr. Justice Fisher ruled: "I direct that inquiries be made in order that the money may be produced in court. A transcript of the evidence is to be made and forwarded to the proper authorities."

Prince Paul, brother of King George VI, and Princess Frederika, granddaughter of the former Kaiser of Germany, were married in Athens, January 9.

CAMPAIGN IN CHINA

The Japanese campaign in China has made immense strides in recent weeks. More than half the population of the country is now under Japanese control. The invaders have possession of railway communication from the south; on the seaboard the Japanese are masters of the situation. A point has been reached where Japan has seen fit to make an announcement about the terms of settlement upon which the undeclared war will be ended. These include that China must accept industrial and economic reciprocity; must abandon all policies and forms of education likely to destroy unity with Japan, and must establish guarantees against recurrence of the "Chinese incident," which was the ostensible cause of the invasion.

These terms do not suggest that Japan intends to regard China as a conquered country and to annex it to the Japanese Empire. They mean industrial but they do not mean political domination. The latter task would, perhaps, be too great an undertaking for Japan, for it would mean such an army of occupation as would weaken the defences of Japan proper to too great a degree. One of the terms to be enforced is the linking of China with the anti-Communist accord of Japan, Germany and Italy. This is an outcome that will not be difficult of achievement, because China has been disappointed in the character of the aid given to her by the Soviet Power in her struggle with Japan.

What is happening now is that there is a growing decline in the opposition which the Chinese are able to present to Japanese arms. That fact forecasts the end of the campaign. With its conclusion, much readjustment, reconstruction and possibly a great deal of guerrilla warfare will ensue. It is certain that for a long time to come large Japanese forces will be concentrated in China. Moreover, the question of the "Open Door" will remain a perplexing one and will continue to agitate the Powers of Europe and the United States.

VERY SERIOUS PROBLEM

The serious situation of Canada's railway problem is more widely recognized all the time. It is one of the factors that prevents the investment of British capital in the Dominion. The Locomotive, of London, says it is causing the Government and the people grave concern. That publication is slightly in error, because the Federal Government seems to be little, if at all, concerned over the situation, and the people, so far as they are expressing themselves, seem to be apathetic. The Locomotive, however, has sized up the situation. It says that neither concern (transcontinental) can agree to the proposals of the other, that a state of deadlock exists which can only be broken by the intervention of a third body with the power to enforce its will on the other two. Then it goes on to say:

"Until this intervention takes place no real improvement in things can be expected, and the country will go on suffering financially and otherwise, with an even worse state of things certain to come about eventually. The nettle must be grasped firmly; and it may then be found far more harmless than was expected. Too long has a laissez faire attitude been assumed by Canada to this very serious situation; action cannot be postponed much longer."

STATE CHARITY AS CAMPAIGN ISSUE

There is a wave of popular sentiment in the United States in favor of State charity which is bemusing the outlook on the result of the mid-term elections to be held on November 8. Pension schemes galore are being advocated, and these seem to constitute the issue in many States. They have dwarfed into insignificance the merits or otherwise of the New Deal. In California the proposal is for State pensions of $30 every Thursday. Proponents of such charity in Kansas want $25 every Tuesday. In Alabama a pamphlet is being circulated entitled "Life begins at fifty with $30 a week for life to every Alabama citizen fifty or over, without added taxes." Pennsylvania has a slogan "80 after 60," and weekly largesse of varying amounts is being offered as political bait in Florida, Maine, Oregon, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Wisconsin and in other States of the Union.

The Townsend plan seems to have started it all, and more and more people are becoming "something for nothing" conscious. One American newspaper says that the pension campaign has made such strides that public opinion for and against is about equally divided. Apparently the desire is to organize the aged for the purpose of political pressure. The irony of the situation is that no one seems to have the least idea where the money is to be secured for the distribution of such largesse.

OCCUPATIONAL MORTALITY

What are the safest occupations in which to engage, the ones which state off death the longest? Something in the nature of an answer to this is given in a decennial analysis dealing with occupational mortality in England and Wales covering the three years, 1930 to 1932. Those who appear to have the healthiest expectation of life are agricultural machine workers, wireless operators on shore, makers of non-metallic mineral and quarry products, draughtsmen and costing clerks and bank and insurance officials. The worst rates of mortality are shown among underground miners of metals, sand blasters, stevedores, slate miners and quar-riers in Carnarvonshire and those glass-blowers and finishers who do not use machines.

Where the disease of cancer is concerned, clergymen, leaders and retailers of boots give most of their victims from inn and hotel keepers, stevedores, physicians and surgeons, waiters, tobacconists, motor garage proprietors, barmen and brewers. There is an important group of diseases which are increased by affluence among men, but are not so increased among their wives. The chief of these are appendicitis, diabetes, gall stones and nephritis. The report shows that the social class contrasts in total mortality are greater among married women than among men, wives of the unskilled class having a rate of 13 above, and wives of the professional class 18 below the general average.

As is generally known, no occupation is healthier than that of agriculture, but in this the benefits accrue particularly to men and not so much to their wives. The benefits, however, are shown in such wives as take their share in the work on the farms. The report presents a detailed analysis of cancer mortality. The disease, where it affects the mouth, throat, stomach and skin, is most prevalent in the unskilled classes, but there are other forms of cancer which are most prevalent among the wealthier classes.

LITERARY POLITICIANS

Joseph Chamberlain, hard-headed and practical as he may have seemed, had, nevertheless, a lively sense of literary values. He was on intimate terms with the kind of poetry that goes straight to the heart. He brought to the attention of a good many who were previously unaware of its existence, the haunting beauty of the boat-song of the Highland exiles in Canada, which speaks of

"the lone shieling on the misty island."

His son, Neville, thus comes honestly by his literary predilections. Very appropriately, on leaving for Munich, he quoted from King Henry IV the words of Hotspur: "Out of this nettle, danger, we pluck this flower, safety." This gave Mr. Greenwood an opportunity too obvious to be missed. He reminded the House that Hotspur's words were uttered in defiance of a serious warning: "The purpose you undertake is dangerous; the friends you have named uncertain; the time itself unsuited; and your whole plot too light for the counterpoise of so great an opposition." Mr. Butler, another Member of the House, continued this literary by-play. He spoke of "Under the Greenwood tree," quoting the line "Here shall we see no enemy but winter and rough weather."

When Mr. Chamberlain came back bringing "peace with honor," the words of the Archbishop of York in the second part of the same play might appropriately have been recalled:

"A peace is in the nature of a conquest; For then both parties nobly are subdued, And neither party loser."

The Munich settlement was the issue in the British by-election in Oxford City, and the Chamberlain candidate was successful. His victory was important for that reason; it was important, too, because he beat a Labor opponent who was a powerful figure in Oxford. Mr. A. D. Lindsay, the defeated candidate, was the strongest Vice-Chancellor that Oxford University has had for many years. He brought about many reforms in the University, and it was through his influence that Lord Nuffield provided $35,000,000 for university purposes. Labor could not have had a stronger candidate, and he was soundly beaten. He was the candidate, too, of what is known as the "United front," and one of the first of this misnamed organization to go down to defeat.

Mr. Henry Ford is one of the most practical of latter-day philosophers and it is his theories of life and work that have made him so successful. He has epitomized some of those theories in saying "Do your own work, don't indulge in controversies, that's the way to get along."

Note and Comment

By Sandham Graves

Inflation, never far from the surface in times of stress, is creeping into the language. One can notice that in nouns, used to stand upright by themselves, but now must be propped up by adjectives. So far has the practice spread that it has become well nigh an insult to call a man an economist, without stating that he is a noted one. What avarice so torrid is he who is mentioned without the qualification "noted." Every lecturer is internationally famous. A legislature cannot meet without becoming a colorful spectacle. Every statement of a politician becomes the most important in decades. A large variety of individuals, eminent in their own lines, have become aces; and so painfully on and on.

Take the plain, unvarnished words of other days out and have another look at them. Do they not look pale and neglected? We are talking and thinking in superlatives; and applying them to quite ordinary things and people. Where is "good," beside "best." Who would take "large" as offered "largest." Can "ordinary" stand before "extraordinary." Yet there is danger in the practice. All economists are not noted; and some are unnoted. All aviators cannot be intrepid, especially at the moment of their discomfiture. Many lecturers are unknown in their own lands, let alone their reputation in foreign parts. Every artist may desire to become famous, but few achieve fame. Politicians say ordinary and unimportant things, at times. If a baseball player is an ace, what will you call the top card in a suit of playing cards? Originally these words meant something specific and definite. Through inflation they are becoming meaningless. After "super-super-film," what?

In one sense, an adjective is like an extra coat of paint on a noun. It may color it, but it is also bound to obscure part of the surface. Say Jones is a man, with an apostrophe and due emphasis, and you will have said quite a lot about Jones. Say he is a good man, and your meaning has changed. Say he is the best man, and you have either taken him to the foot of the altar, or else exalted him above all his fellows. There may be times when you want to do those things for Jones, but it seems a lot to do for the chap, and, after all, there are Brown and Green, and Black to be considered. Adjectives, like pepper, are excellent seasonings; but they make a very poor meal. So much for the words, and their use is legion.

How about ideas? There is a looseness in thinking which refers to a specific remedy as "the only way," when it is quite apt to be merely one way, of even a small part of one way. You can have it, recently, that inflation will "cure poverty." Will it? You have had inflation for hundreds of years, and still there is poverty. In this country today three dollars may or may not go as far as did one dollar at the turn of the last century. It may require five dollars to perform the same purpose. I don't pretend to know, but I have my suspicions. History will be reversed, however, if poverty is "cured," by the time that at any future date, if you lean upon superlatives, you are taking chances with the law of gravity. Superlatives usually fall down, of their own weight.

The English language is distinctive for the large number of plain and simple words it contains. Plain words are rich in meaning. Simple words have the largest audience, and I can defend that superlatively. It is not by chance that through the ages great thoughts have been expressed in home-spun language. Not as a religious exercise but as a simple of inspired writing polished with the years, take the Lord's Prayer. Write it out. Look at it. What word could you remove, without removing also part of its meaning? Yet the Lord's Prayer could be taught through which have interested men for twenty centuries.

"The noted economist was flown by the intrepid aviator to Oshkosh in the company with a famous artist, he heard an internationally-known lecturer describe the most important policy announced by Mr. Zed, ace politician of his time." Skip a line or two, in the printed prints of the day, and you can get the idea. Ace, the ace of the ace, it is playing the deuce with your language, and mine!

Subscriptions Asked for Church—Rev. A. H. Howell, pastor of the Congregational Church, at Port Angeles, W.T., is at present in this city soliciting donations from the residents of Victoria who are interested in the prosperity of Port Angeles, towards the erection of a Congregational Church. The proposed church will cost the sum of $15,000, of which $500 is contributed by the mission fund, the balance of $14,500 remaining to be raised by voluntary subscriptions.

Appointments in Police Department—Superintendent Sheppard recommended Constable No. 1 Walker for the sergeantship, and yesterday the police commission confirmed the appointment. Sergeant Walker has always been a capable and diligent officer, and his promotion was deserved. "Allen, an Excubitor, has been appointed by the police commission as a constable and will be sworn in today. He was highly recommended.

Lineman Narrowly Escapes Injury—On Thursday night, while the linemen were putting fresh carbons in the electric light at the corner of Government and Yates Streets, one of the heavy ropes broke, precipitating man and lights halfway down the pole. Fortunately the lineman had sufficient presence of mind to crouch in the bottom of the cage, and beyond a bad shaking up, escaped uninjured.

"Wrong Number"

By SOURIRES

Telephones happened to come up in conversation the other day, over cups of coffee and cigarettes. In "The Purple Cow," I mentioned that I was bothered by inward calls upon a telephone, not listed in the directory, used for outward calls only, and was tired of saying "I think you have the wrong number," to cut off an obvious mistake. Frequently the caller seemed to be a Frenchman who desired conversation with Victorine, or a Madame Laperouse. Somebody suggested I should tell him he had the wrong number, in French, just for devilment.

"Fine," I said. "But what is the French for 'Wrong number'?"
Well, nobody knew exactly. We got as far as "Vous avez-vous," but could produce nothing satisfactory for "Wrong number." There was bound to be something in French for it, of official phrase, for such occasions.

We agreed that Percy, who was credited with a good knowledge of the language, was the lad to consult, and as I happened to run into Percy in the afternoon, I laid the matter before him. He rose to the occasion—his prestige at stake—and achieved a phrase which, if it did not hit the bull's eye, seemed to be on the target, at any rate. It made a fine mouthful if you rolled the r's well, so I promised to use it, and let him know what effect it had.

The next time there was an inward call on this telephone, I lifted the receiver, and said distinctly, with my best French accent, "Je crois que vous vous trompez de numero." The result was dead silence, so with an extra roll to the r's, I repeated slowly and emphatically, "Je crois que vous vous trompez de numero-r-r-r-o," when a gruff, exasperated, German voice at the other end exclaimed, "Ach, Gott in Himmel!" and hung up.

Green-Eyed Dragons, Maybe! So this is the Twentieth Century! And yet radio listeners go into a panic when they hear a fictional report of men from Mars attacking the earth in space ships. Although we did not hear the actual broadcast which has received continent-wide publicity, we have spoken to many people who heard portions of the programme and others who enjoyed the entire performance. Not one of them ever doubted but that it was some more high-pressure American broadcasting that seemed, too far-fetched to be believed by anyone but a child. But it seems that some of our neighbors across the border still believe in fairy tales and "boogie men." And, anyway, somebody ought to tell them to telephone the nearest newspaper office and check if the attack being broadcast is really on the up and up—they do, about most other things—W.I.F.

Happy Holiday

Detective Dave received information that he would linger around the Court House for two days before his services were required as a witness in a case. Much to our surprise, he drew a battered cribbage board out of an inner pocket, and speedily contacted three other players. They commandeered one of the women's witness rooms and whiled away several pleasant hours.

Most women have at least one new hat for every season, but it is positively amazing how long some men cling to a battered headpiece. We know several otherwise well-dressed men who wear hats so dirty and shapeless that not even a tramp would give them a second look. Sign in a Broughton Street barber shop: "Do not swear before ladies. Let them swear first." Quite appropriate. . . . Our tobaccoist friend believes it is scarcity that creates value. The less fun he has, the more he enjoys it when it arrives—G.B.

TELLS HISTORY OF VEGETABLES

W. H. Warren, Parks Superintendent, Speaks at Horticultural Society

The part played by vegetables as an important role in world history was described by W. H. Warren, city parks superintendent, at a meeting of the Victoria Horticultural Society Tuesday night at the City Hall.

At first used in connection with superstition and mythology, vegetables had gradually taken their place as one of the major staple foods of the world, Mr. Warren said. First mention of the vegetable was made in the Bible when the people of Israel were reported to have eaten leeks, cucumbers and melons. The Greeks were known to have used radishes, onions and peas as food, onions being used in many cases to bind spells cast over enemies. Rhubarb was the chief article of trade in China 2800 B.C. and was later taken over by Russia in the same capacity, the speaker declared.

During the period of the Roman Empire, Nero ate onions to improve his voice, while garlic was given to the Roman soldiers to make them more courageous. The Romans also used cabbage to modify their drunken orgies, Mr. Warren said. Ancient China and Japan were known to grow turnips weighing between sixty and 100 pounds. Mustard was regarded as a remedy for palsy and the bites of snakes and scorpions. The period of exploration could be regarded as most important in the use of vegetables, Mr. Warren said, as many adventures brought back new kinds from North and South America. The chief discoveries in vegetables during that period were corn, tomatoes and potatoes, and while the "New World" discoveries were at first unpopular, they gradually found public favor, the potato playing the most important part. Columbus was responsible for bringing corn to Europe, he said.

Since the early days, great improvement had been made in the growth of nearly every vegetable, the speaker concluded.

CHURCH MARKS ANNIVERSARY

Dean Spencer Elliott Guest Speaker at Centennial United Gathering

The congregation of Centennial United Church celebrated the close of the fifty-second year of the church at an anniversary supper held Tuesday evening, attended by about 200 persons, including representatives of many other city churches.

The guest speaker was Very Rev. Spencer H. Elliott, Dean of Columbia, whose subject was "Reminiscences of Child Life in Scotland." His address was of a pleasingly informal and delightful humorous character, yet through it ran a thread of serious thought and of respect for the devotion and reverent worship of God found in the Scottish community in which the speaker spent the first few years of his life.

Dean Elliott's address was preceded by a short musical programme. John Prisk gave a recital of the organ; vocal numbers were contributed by the Ariel Ladies' Trio, consisting of Miss Iris Smith, Miss Helen Schwenger, and Miss Elsie Fryatt, and bass solos were given by Seymour T. White, accompanied by Miss White.

The guest speaker was introduced by Rev. Dr. Andrew D. Reid, pastor of the church, and a vote of thanks to the Dean, to the Ladies' Aid, by whom the supper was served, and to the artists, was proposed by J. P. Bruce.

Anniversary services were held in Centennial United Church on Sunday, when special anthems were sung by the choir. Rev. F. R. G. Dredge, of Oak Bay United Church, preached the morning sermon, and Dr. Reid gave the evening sermon, his subject being "In the Far Country."

of the Odd Fellows Columbia Lodge No. 2, and also Duncan Lodge. The funeral will be conducted on Friday afternoon at 2 from Sands' Mortuary. Rev. G. H. Barrett will officiate, followed by cremation at Royal Oak Crematorium. It is requested that no flowers be sent.

BRACHER—At St. Joseph's Hospital on Tuesday, Mrs. Frances Sarah Bracher died in her eighty-first year. Born in London, England, she had lived in this city for twelve years, lately residing at the Scott Block. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Arthur James Clarke, 383 Sunset Avenue; a son, George Frederick Bracher, and five sisters and one brother in England, ten grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. The funeral will take place Friday afternoon at 3:30 from Sands' Mortuary. Rev. F. W. Bracher will officiate. Interment in Royal Oak Burial Park.

is that these matters are in charge of theorists and doctors of pedagogy who understand little or nothing of the subject. The department should have medical men attached, to advise them on these matters," Dr. Hunter declared.

HOSPITALIZATION
A home for incurables should be established in this city," he continued. On health insurance, the medical profession had been held out as the excuse for lack of action, but the real reason was probably in the Treasury, Dr. Hunter suggested. European tours to study health insurance appeared simply as a waste of money.

"I am in favor of a practical health insurance scheme, so long as it takes in indigents in the province. If we cannot have that immediately, I would like to suggest seriously that the Provincial Secretary investigate a scheme of hospitalization, on a contributory basis."

The Administration was to be praised for efforts to improve the lot of those suffering from tuberculosis or cancer, but much yet remained to be done along those lines. The spread of disease among Indians would have to be stopped before T.B. prevention could make much headway. There was need for cancer clinics, with provincial support, and funds now used on inoperative health insurance might be used in part there, he suggested.

SUCCESSION DUTIES
Dr. Hunter dealt with mining, civil service appointments and other issues briefly, before turning to succession duties. The Government should consider abolition of succession duties.

Premier Pattullo—No chance. Dr. Hunter—Why not? In my opinion there is no financial advantage in keeping them. The estimated revenue is $700,000 this year, and that would be more than offset by increased collections in income tax. People would come to the province and bring their money with them; to say nothing of the stimulus to industry, and resultant development.

Dr. Hunter recommended that the Province widen the scope of legal investment for trust funds, now restricted to provincial and municipal securities, in part. Municipalities had been forced into virtual bankruptcy, and land values weakened.

Charging political interference with appointments at Tranquille, Dr. Hunter brought the Provincial Secretary to his feet in swift denial of that assertion for a fifteen-minute reply.

HON. DR. G. M. WEIR

Dr. Weir—I make the statement that there are no political appointments at Tranquille, so far as I know. Dr. Hatfield is in charge there, and it is not suggested, surely, that he would stoop to that.

SMITH—The funeral of Mrs. Margaret Emile Smith will take place from Haywards' B.C. Funeral Chapel at 3:15 this afternoon. Very Rev. S. H. Elliott, Dean of Columbia, officiating, and interment will be made in Royal Oak Burial Park.

TURPIN—Funeral rites for Charles C. Turpin were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the S. J. Curry & Son Funeral Home. Rev. F. Conley conducted an impressive service, during which one hymn "Abide With Me" and a solo, "When the Day of Toll Is Done" were sung. Interment was made in the family plot at Royal Oak Burial Park, with the following acting as pallbearers: Tom McDonald, Dave McMillan, Tom Coward, A. L. Marchant, A. P. Dunnett and T. Haywood.

HEARN—A very large number of sympathizing friends were present yesterday morning at St. Andrew's Cathedral to attend Solemn Requiem Mass sung by Mgr. A. G. Baker, V.G., assisted by Deacon Father A. Gaudette and Sub-Deacon Father K. Moreau. The many beautiful floral tributes received paid silent tribute to the high esteem in which Mr. Hearn was held. Interment was made in the family plot at Rose Bay Cemetery, with the following members of the Royal Marines acting as pallbearers: William Best, H. Smith, John Fry, J. Kaye, A. Murch, A. C. Boyce and J. Ireland, R.M.L.I. S. J. Curry & Son had charge of funeral arrangements.

LASENBY—Funeral services for Mrs. Mary H. F. Lasenby will take place from Thomson Funeral Home this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. G. A. Reynolds, assisted by Rev. Dr. A. S. Imrie, will conduct the services, after which the remains will be laid at rest in the family plot in Rose Bay Cemetery.

FAWCETT—Frederick John Fawcett died Tuesday night, aged fifty-eight years. Mr. Fawcett was born in Victoria and resided here until 1914 when he went overseas with the 5th Regiment and since his return lived in Duncan. He is survived by five sisters and one brother. He was a valued member of a judge of one of our higher courts granting an injunction upon an ex parte application. In my opinion, the judge did what any other judge might have done—rightly or wrongly is a matter that will have to be decided—but he should be the people's friend. The courts did not have the way the Premier of British Columbia wanted them, to then there would be legislation to make them. That's the way to dictatorship.

Mr. Maitland said he thought the Premier "would have been delighted to have someone point out to him the way he was going, with a statement of the kind he made public today." He believed that it had the earmarks of "a new order of government" and that "the Premier may have forgotten that the Government belonged to the people and to no one else."

LIQUOR LEGISLATION
The Opposition Leader referred to the proposed amendments to the Liquor Control Act to establish a new club system without proper reference to the people or to the Legislature. He said "actions of this kind depart from the principle of responsible government."

Mr. Maitland claimed the people were losing confidence in the Government because it had refused to tell them what the Government was doing. "The people have a right to know what is going to be done with the money that is collected from them by taxation and other means. We must have faith in our governments, and time has come when the loss of confidence will mean the radicalism will be the road the people will follow. The speaker said he was more concerned, as a party leader, with policy for the future."

I think the people of this province are more concerned with the policies of our party than with throwing mud at the Government, reserving at all times the right to criticize the action of a government in order that the people may be informed of the condition of affairs of the country and province."

The speaker closed with a reference to the value of agriculture. He stated it was imperative the farmer be given a fair return for his products and that "every possible aid should be given to every section of the province in order that the farmer will be encouraged to stay on his land. In connection with unemployment, he said briefly it was the aim of the Conservative party to "substitute useful occupation for the dole" and made a plea for assistance to youth in future government planning.

Mr. Maitland was accompanied to the meeting held in Metcalf Hall by E. V. Finland, M.P.P. for Esquimalt, and R. H. Pooley, K.C., a former provincial attorney-general, both of whom spoke briefly. As it was the annual meeting of the association, the following officers were elected: President, P. C. Blake; first vice-president, G. A. Duncan; second vice-president, D. Bullen; third vice-president, W. Kedward; and secretary, T. Norman. Mr. and Mrs. W. Swetman were made life members of the association.

LAND DISPUTE IS SETTLED BY COURT

Action of Olander J. Garner against Bertram R. Lemon over the ownership of land at Green Point, Burynge Bay—Saltspring Island, was dismissed with costs in a judgment handed down in County Court by Judge H. H. Shandley. Judge Shandley found that Green Point, the parcel of land in dispute, was included in a parcel pre-empted by Richard Maxwell and later purchased by him from the Crown. He also found that Mr. Lemon and his predecessor, Mr. Maxwell, had been in continuous and undisturbed possession of the land for more than twenty years.

Meeting other objections, Dr. Weir said the present administration had increased hospital grants from 45 cents a day to 70 cents, on a per patient basis, since election in 1933, representing an increase of some $400,000 to the hospitals.

There had been some confusion between welfare cases and genuine patients in hospitals, and the Province had acted to straighten that out, the Provincial Secretary continued. Grants in some cases had been illegally paid, but were not now. The act was being observed.

The Jubilee, at Victoria, and the Vancouver General Hospital had a claim for special consideration, and that was being looked into. For the rest, excessive hospitalization had been curbed, with respect to welfare cases. Improved methods of collection had been installed, and British Columbia hospitals were collecting $500,000 a year more than formerly, Dr. Weir said.

The department, he continued, had had the advice of experts in the field of public health, and would accept no criticism on that score. What was required was a whole new approach of hospitalization, he concluded.

MUSICAL ARTS SEASON OPENS

Selma Reyes, Violinist, and Maquinn Daniels, Pianist, Delight Big Audience

Selma Reyes, a young violinist with an already exuberant and facile technique and ardent temperament, assisted by Maquinn Daniels, known to the local concert platform for several seasons as a pianist of splendidly well-balanced and reliable qualities, entertained an obviously highly pleased Victoria Musical Arts Club audience with a recital of excellent character at the Empress Hotel last evening.

Reyes, Paganini, Saint-Saens and Josef Suk furnished the violinist with her subjects, and Scarlatti and Debussy the pianist. The numbers played by the violinist, undoubtedly the Paganini Concerto in D Major, was outstanding. Technically a great test piece throughout, the masterpiece, in fact, of the giant among the violin virtuosos of all time, it is only played by first-class artists, and in this instance the performance was made the more notable because of the use of the famous Carl Flesch cadenza, which is the peak test of violin virtuosity. Miss Reyes' playing of the whole work was authoritative, unflinching, and stamped her as a violinist of real distinction, one whom Victoria should be proud to claim as a member of her musical group. The brilliant performance and clarity of her harmonics, her effortless bowing, the facility of her left-hand helped her to surmount all difficulties with convincing ease. It is the first time this work has been performed here for several years.

OPENS WITH BRAHMS
The fact that the Brahms "Sonata in A Major, No. 2," was Miss Reyes' first number may have accounted for the slightly forced tone and lack of variety in the tone-coloring, although both the choice of the composition and the detailed treatment revealed fine musical intellect.

In the popular sense, her most successful numbers were these in the second half, viz., the Saint-Saens "Havaneise" and the four pieces by Josef Suk, in which she was particularly happy in conveying mood and individual character. For an encore she gave the hauntingly beautiful Faure "Berceuse." Of the pianist's group, including Scarlatti "Sonatas in C and D Major," respectively, and two Debussy pieces, the "Danseuse del Delphes" was particularly fine, the prevailing tonal color employed having a strongly pictorial effect and showing fine imagination. Her first Scarlatti was also an especially brilliant performance, with clarity and delicacy.

Take Your Mirror to the window—look well at your face—others do! How does it pass the test? Is it all clear and smooth—"a skin you love to touch," or is it all disfigured with unsightly superfluous hair and moles? Never mind! Do not be downhearted, all these blemishes may be removed safely, painlessly and absolutely—and the cost will be within your means, so do not suffer the torture of miserable self-consciousness one moment longer—it is such a drawback, such a handicap, and truly needless. The captain of the Spanish freighter, Manuelle Ardit, said his ship sailed from Immingham on Tuesday and that he noticed, as he entered the North Sea that he was being followed by what appeared to be an armed trawler. "Signals were falling all around us," he said, describing the attack. "It was evident the ship would sink quickly, although none of the shells themselves caused the fire, and my family remained on deck until the very last. Altogether, I should say at least twenty shells fell near us or on the ship. Many of them hit the hull and very soon water was pouring in. They kept firing for about 2 1/2 hours, and the whole time it was boom, boom, boom. When the lifeboat came alongside my ship had a list of fifty degrees."

Get Wise to Constipation!
When you're constipated, it's a great temptation to be satisfied with quick relief. But laxatives may become a habit. And they don't keep constipation from returning. It's so much better to get at the cause of the trouble. If you eat what most people do, chances are the only thing that matters is you don't get enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean how much you eat. It means a kind of food that isn't consumed in the body, but leaves a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines and helps a bowel movement. What to do? Eat a little Zeballos' All-Bran for breakfast every day and drink plenty of water. This crunchy toasted cereal is not only rich in "bulk," it also contains the natural intestinal tonic, vitamin B. All-Bran is made by Kellogg in London, Ontario. Sold by every grocer.

Miss Nora Helgesen Is Married at Metchoshin

A large congregation was present at St. Mary's Church, Metchoshin, on Tuesday, when Rev. H. M. Bolton united in marriage, Nora, only daughter of Mrs. Helgesen, Metchoshin, and the late Mr. Henry Charles Helgesen, and Mr. Alfred John McCollum, second son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. McCollum, Delburne, Alta.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Charles H. Helgesen, looked radiant as she entered the church to the strains of the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin." Her floor-length gown was of net over ivory satin, girdled with a satin sash, and worn with matching bolero. The train of embroidered Honiton lace, lent by an old friend of the family, was arranged cap fashion with a bandeau of orange blossoms. She wore lace mittens and carried a shower bouquet of pink and white carnations.

THE ATTENDANTS

Miss Lillian Helgesen, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid in a charming powder blue silk lace frock made on princess lines, with shoulder-length blue veil caught with a cluster of blue flowers. She also carried a shower bouquet of pink and white carnations. Mr. Fred Barber, Victoria, supported the groom, and Mr. George Muttter, Maple Bay, was the usher.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. W.

Whitney-Griffiths sang "O Promise Me," and during the signing of the register, "Beloved, It Is Morn." Mrs. W. H. House presided at the organ.

RECEPTION HELD

After the ceremony a small reception was held at the home of the bride's mother for relatives and a few intimate friends. The table was centred with a three-tier wedding cake. The toast to the bride and groom was proposed by Mr. C. A. Helgesen, Sooke, uncle of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. McCollum left for a motor trip Up-Island and the Mainland, the bride going away in a strawberry and black suit with Empire blue coat and blue accessories. On their return they will reside at 166 Medina Street.

Among the many gifts received were a reading lamp, smoking stand, Kenwood blanket and quilt from the staff of the Empress Hotel, where the groom is employed.

CENTRAL WHIST CLUB PARTY

An enjoyable evening was spent on Monday at the Central Whist Club, 1305 Broad Street. Prizes were given for the best costumes. First prize went to Mrs. Wellman, as a bride of the gay nineties who had been left at the church, and second, Mrs. Patch, as Aunt Jefferia.

BOWS ON A BERET AND MATCHING BAG—DESIGN NO. 642

Dear Readers—So many letters asking one question: "Have you a pattern for a beret?" We have patterns for berets, many of them; but this is a new Fall 1938 model, fresh from our designer's pen and our pattern maker's model. It has all the new lines, it sits atop your head and tilts over one eye. If you are the little-girl type, it also backs off your forehead and boasts a youthful bow. You sew up a few simple seams—and you are the proud possessor of a hat and bag that costs practically nothing and looks like a million dollars.

Birthday Celebrated at Tea by Camosun Chapter

The twenty-ninth anniversary of Camosun Chapter, I.O.D.E., was celebrated yesterday afternoon with a delightful tea given at the home of a past regent, Mrs. George Miles, Stanley Avenue. A very large gathering of members and friends attended, the guests being welcomed by Mrs. Miles in a charming black crepe frock, and Mrs. A. E. Hopkins, regent, who wore a smart black lace frock. They were assisted by Mrs. James Stewart, first vice-regent, Geraldine Miles, the attractive granddaughter of Mrs. Miles, attended at the door.

Mrs. R. B. McKicking, a charter member of the chapter, was a special guest, and later in the afternoon she was called upon to speak to the guests, at which time she told, in an amusing manner, much to the delight of the members, how the chapter had come to be formed.

TEA ARRANGEMENTS

A lace cloth covered the table, which was centred with a bowl of bronze single chrysanthemums, and was presided over by Mrs. Kylie Symons, Mrs. A. F. Griffiths and Miss Kathleen Agnew. Mrs. C. T. Wriglesworth convoked the tea arrangements, and she was assisted by Mrs. Y. Thorne, Mrs. A. Mainprize, Mrs. J. R. Phillips, Mrs. W. A. Kippen and Mrs. Thompson Kirby. Mrs. R. Duncan was in receipt of customs.

A table of income cooking tempted the guests and added to the funds of the chapter. Mrs. D. W. Burnett and Mrs. J. Wilkinson were in charge of the table, and Miss Irene Bannerman and Mrs. A. C. Phipps were in charge of the two contests. Miss Kathleen Agnew was presented with the birthday cake.

THE PROGRAMME

Madame Claudet was responsible for the entertaining programme of music and recitations, in which she also took part. Madame Claudet's vocal solos included "Mia Pictorella" and "Western Sea" and she was accompanied by Mrs. A. E. Hopkins.

Jewelry Harmonizes With Fall Costumes

By JOAN GARDNER

One of the days when a lovely costume with an eye to the "costume" with bar pin of diamonds set in platinum was worn with every costume, when it was your one piece of fine jewelry that went with everything, merely the price of the piece.

Those of you who are fortunate enough to have a treasure chest in an old bureau drawer will be quick to bring old lockets, rings and bracelets into the sunshine again. With the great revival of interest in things Victorian, this old jewelry is at a premium and you can flaunt your beautiful originals while others must be content with merely modern copies of it at popular prices.

Of Josephine and Marie Antoinette.

shirred bodices, this old jewelry is perfect.

For formal costumes, particularly for the older woman who does not want to detract from the grace and dignity that her years bestow, there are bracelets that give her a queenly charm. The word, "queenly" is not carelessly used, for much of the new jewelry is copied from the jewelry of Josephine and Marie Antoinette.

Worn with afternoon dresses that have long-sleeved sleeves and sportswear, too, has jewelry specially designed to wear with it.

Tailored clips that lose none of their beauty because they are simple, time and sporty clothes, one bracelet that are merely wide, flexible links of gold or silver, tailored jewel-set rings, metal necklaces that hug the throat like a collar. Even the wrist watch has a new, squared look—jewel encased—that goes well with the crisp, tailored lines of a sports dress or suit.

Jewelry is definitely "in" this season as you have been told many times. You can literally pile it on and look very chic. Even with day-time and sporty clothes, one bracelet, unless it is very wide, is hardly enough. You wear them in pairs and trips to get the best effect.

This season's clothes are designed to take jewelry and you wear them in new ways. A jewelry ensemble for an evening costume or a day-time dress is not the exception but the rule.

NATIONAL LEAGUE HOCKEY SEASON OPENS TONIGHT

BOSTON BRUINS TO INVADE TORONTO TO START THE SCHEDULE

Manager Art Ross Will Be Without Services of Eddie Shore When Club Meets the Leafs— Defence Star Is Holding Out—New Players Will Be Making Their Debut

TORONTO, Nov. 2 (CP)—Boston Bruins probably will be without two stand-out performers when they meet Toronto Maple Leafs here tomorrow to open the National Hockey League season, but Manager Art Ross has his fingers crossed and is hoping for the best. A couple of young stars will take the place of veterans, according to present plans. Holdout Eddie Shore's defence position will be handled by Johnny Crawford, former Toronto amateur, who played with Providence, Bruin farm club last season, while another Providence performer, twenty-two-year-old Frank Brimsek, will be between the goalposts in place of Tiny Thompson.

EDDIE SHORE

Ross said Thompson suffered a five-stitch gash over his right eye in practice at Boston on Sunday, and the injury has not healed. The veteran netminder took part in practice today. Shore, colorful veteran, took part in training, but failed to show for the team left Boston for Toronto. Ross said he would proclaim the Western Canada wheat farmer a holdout if he did not show up in time for the opener here. Shore is not satisfied with his contract.

NEW FRONT LINE

Ross announced a "old line" of Pat McCrory, Mel Hill and Roy Conacher, brother of Charlie and Lionel, would form one of the attacking divisions against the Leafs, and that another youthful line would be made up of Bobby Bauer, Porky Dumart and Bill Schmidt, former Kitchener amateurs. Leafs went through a fast practice today, a few hours before the Bruins. Turk Broda, regular Leaf custodian, will be in goal against the Bostonites, and Coach Dick Irvin probably will start his ace forward line of Syd Apple, Gordie Drillon and Bob Davidson. Harvey Jackson, Buzz Boll and Bill Thomas will be a second attacking division, and the veterans Red Horner and Jimmy Fowler will line up on defence.

Music from a pipe organ—an innovation in the Toronto rink—will greet the fans as they crowd Maple Leaf Gardens for the opener. Just before the battle begins, Drillon, Leaf right winger, will be presented with the Lady Byng Trophy by Lieutenant-Governor Albert Matthews of Ontario. Drillon was awarded the trophy last season as the most gentlemanly player in the league.

HAWKS FACE AMERKS

CHICAGO, Nov. 2 (CP)—Chicago Black Hawks, long-shot winners of the Stanley Cup last winter, open defence of the National Hockey

League's Trophy tomorrow night against New York Americans as a two-game programme gets the 39-N.H.L. season under way. Boston Bruins meet the Maple Leafs at Toronto.

The Hawks hope to get off to a flying start with a team that looks considerably stronger than last season's. Chief addition is a complete forward line, composed of Russ Blinco, Earl Robinson and Baldy Northcott, who played last year for the disbanded Montreal Maroons.

Manager Bill Stewart, of the Hawks, rates his team, together with the Bruins, Leafs and New York Rangers, as the four top contenders in the revamped seven-team circuit. The veteran line of Doc Romnes, Paul Thompson and Mueh March will start against the Americans, and Stewart said he felt that with the Northcott-Blinco-Robinson and Cully Dahlstrom, Johnny Gottselig, Joffre Desllets lines, the Hawks have much more manpower than in previous seasons.

The team is especially well equipped for power manoeuvres when opponents are left short-handed by penalties. The Romnes-March-Thompson or Blinco-Northcott-Robinson lines can be combined with Gottselig and Defenceman Earl Seibert.

Stacy's Hoopsters Facing Dominoes Saturday Evening

WITH eleven players signed for the season's campaign, Stacy's senior basketball squad, from the Vancouver City League, will invade the city Saturday for an exhibition game with the Dominoes at the High School gymnasium. A preliminary game will open the night's programme at 8 o'clock, and the main event is expected to get under way about an hour later. The veteran Arnie Bumstead, who starred with the Vancouver Province Club when it won the Canadian crown a few seasons ago, and Trev Harvey, one of the best footballers on the Mainland, are leading the visiting squad. Other players on the line-up follow: Lance Hudson, Jack Pugsley, Bob Gorowski, Jack Muir, Norm Glog, Ken Lawn, Joe Naples, George, Siborne and John Cavalin. The Dominoes will have their regular line-up on hand and expect to get back into the winning van after dropping a tough decision to the Alpine Dairy quintette last Saturday on the local court.

ENGLISHMEN NEW SOCCER TITLEHOLDERS

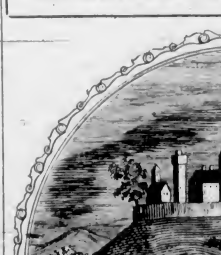

Defeat Scotland to Win Inter-League Honors By 3-1 Score

WOLVERHAMPTON, England, Nov. 2 (CP)—Scotland surrendered to Inter-League soccer title to England today, playing before 25,000 spectators at Wolverhampton Wanderers' ground the English League eleven won 3-1.

The victory was England's twenty-fourth over its Northern rival, successful eleven times since the Inter-League tournament was started in 1892. Nine matches have been drawn. Last year at Glasgow the Scots won 1-0. Scoring three goals before Tommy Walker, the heart of Scotland's side, reduced the margin from a penalty, the home players had a comparatively easy victory. The Scottish League were inclined to hold the ball too long and were easy prey for their robust and quick-tackling opponents.

To Defend Boxing Crown

JOE LOUIS Colored-heavyweight boxing champion of the world, who hails from Detroit, and who was signed yesterday by Promoter Mike Jacobs to defend his crown against John Henry Lewis, holder of the light-heavyweight title, in New York on the night of January 27. It will be Louis' first fight since he stopped Max Schmeling last June in the Yankee Stadium in less than a round. This match will be the first all-negro title battle since Jack Johnson, then champion, beat Jim Johnson in Paris twenty-five years ago.

Ronald Dix, Derby County inside left, netted two goals after W. Boyes, Everton winger, opened the scoring after fifteen minutes. Playing his first representative game, Dix proved a source of trouble to the Scottish defenders throughout and was the best individualist on the field.

Mathews, Stoke City outside right, got in some dazzling runs and paved the way for the first goal. Although held scoreless in the opening half the visiting forwards were at their best in that period. Tommy Walker, A. Venters, Rangers and J. Delaney, Celtic were the pick.

The teams: English League—Goal, Woodley (Chelsea); backs, Greenhalgh (Everton), Sproston (Tottenham Hotspurs); halfbacks, Willingham (Huddersfield Town), Cully, Gordon (Wolverhampton Wanderers); forwards, Matthews (Stoke City).

THINKS YOUTH WOULD PREFER CONSCRIPTION

LONDON, Nov. 2 (CP)—Havas—Sir Arnold Wilson, Right-Wing Conservative, who long has championed better relations between Great Britain and Germany, today appealed for compulsory universal service for all men of military age from seventeen upwards. "I believe the younger generation would glory in national service," he said.

United Line-Up Is Released for Saturday's Game

THE Victoria United line-up, which opposes the strong St. Andrews Club from Vancouver on Saturday afternoon in the opening Inter-City Football League match of the season, was announced by the selection committee following last night's workout at the Athletic Park. The match will commence at 2:45, with Tom Robb handling the whistle. Roy Barnes, who will play left half-back, was named captain of the team, which will be managed by Billy Milligan, former member of Canada's all-star squad which travelled to New Zealand several years ago. Victoria's team is as follows: T. Res-tall, goal; B. Bell and J. Cook, fullbacks; R. Barnes, C. Res-tall and G. Cooper, halves; G. Payne, N. Morgan, N. Sage, J. Worwick and G. Bell, forwards; spurs, Joe Watt, E. Barnswell, Alex Stewart and H. Sage. Players unable to turn out are asked to telephone Milligan at E9358. It was also announced that a "get together" of players and officials will be held in the Liberal Headquarters next Monday at 8 o'clock.

SEABISCUIT IS RUNNING ON SATURDAY

Conqueror of War Admiral To Start in $10,000 Race At Pimlico

BALTIMORE, Nov. 2 (CP)—Seabiscuit, king of the United States turf, but no pampered darling of the paddocks, will keep right on running of a pot of gold bigger than Sun Beau's record of $376,744 and is willing to race all comers to get it. He's willing even to meet War Admiral again in another match race, but the Admiral, beaten by better than three lengths yesterday, is not interested.

Next Saturday the Biscuit will make his next bid for a big chunk of the $20,264 he needs to equal Sun Beau's record.

He will go to the post in the $10,000 added Riggs Memorial Handicap at Pimlico, which he won last year with a record burst of speed surpassed only by Pompoon and Seabiscuit's own new record of 1:56.3 in his great victory over War Admiral.

War Admiral is not eligible for the Riggs, in which nine starters, including two conquerors of Seabiscuit, are entered.

With the end of the Pimlico season in sight—November 15—and visions of another "duel of the century" in mind, Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt started efforts for a second match race, but the vice-president of the Maryland Jockey Club didn't get far.

He pointed out War Admiral is entered in the $25,000 Rhode Island Handicap at Narragansett on November 12. Plans, he said, could not be changed, and besides, Seabiscuit is eligible for the handicap, so why not meet there.

TROJANS WILL TACKLE BEARS

Teams Will Decide Coast Conference Grid Honors On Saturday

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 2 (CP)—The gridiron titan of the United States, the West this week finds California's Golden Bears and Southern California battling for the driver's seat of the Pacific Coast Conference and the dubious privilege of entertaining Pitt, Texas Christian, Notre Dame, Tennessee or the like in the Rose Bowl, New Year's Day. Up around Berkeley the feeling seems positive that California will douse the Trojan hopes. Down here there is hope California can be held, and that Southern California with a proven staunch defence and a combined running and passing attack that apparently has begun to click, will prove the point to the edification of some 70,000 patrons Saturday.

Football Entries To Close Tonight

Secretary Axel Kinnear, of the Victoria Football Commission, last night announced that entries for the Fred Price Memorial Trophy will close this evening at 6 o'clock. Clubs wishing to compete are reminded that entries must be filed not later than 6 o'clock.

Examination Shows That Seattle Boy Broke Two Bones and Suffered a Badly-Battered Right Hand While Surrendering Middleweight Crown to Krieger—To Rest for Months

SEATTLE, Nov. 2 (CP)—Solly Krieger, of New York, has mixed and scrambled the middleweight boxing rankings like he messed up defending titleholder Al Hostak and shunted him off to a hospital.

Without detracting from the convincing, murderous thumping Krieger gave Hostak in winning the championship in a fifteen-round scuffling battle here Tuesday night, boxing fans were trying to figure just who is the best middleweight in the country.

The reason: Fred Apostoli gave Freddie Steele a lacing in a non-title bout when Steele was champion. Young Corbett turned around and beat Apostoli. Steele, in a warm-up bout before risking his title against Hostak, trimmed Krieger. Next, Hostak knocked out Steele in one round to win the crown. And now Krieger has hauled up the whole business again by administering a savage beating to Hostak.

X-ray examinations today showed that Hostak broke two small bones in his left hand and badly bruised his right in hammering the top side of Krieger's rock-like head. Today Krieger couldn't wear his hat because of a bump the size of a boxing glove behind his left ear.

Dr. H. T. Buckner found no broken ribs on Hostak's welled left side, but said he would be on the shelf for three or four months. His face was badly smashed and both eyes swollen, the right closed tightly. He was bandaged like a mummy.

When Hostak won the title from Steele, the wise boys doped him one of the greatest of middleweights. He had scored seventeen consecutive knockouts and had never been knocked off his feet. Jack Dempsey, who refereed the Steele-Hostak fight, only three and a half months ago, predicted it would be a long time before Al would lose the crown. Tommy Burns, the California heavyweight champion of the early days, compared him to the great Stanley Ketchell, only said he was better. Today, before Hostak left the hospital for home, his nurses compared him with the best steak being prepared for other patients.

BOXING BOUT HELD IN METCHOSIN HALL

METCHOSIN, Nov. 2—The Metchoshin Sports Club held its monthly social recently in the local hall and more than seventy members and their friends attended. Jim Stowe and John Shupbauer staged a boxing exhibition which was full of action from start to finish. Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Houseman, John Houseman and J. Thompson provided the music for dancing following the bout. On November 11 an old-time dance will be held in the hall and several boxing bouts will be staged.

SINKS TEE SHOT

PARKSVILLE, Nov. 2—Mrs. Godfrey Forbes, of Parksville, scored a hole-in-one on the local course recently while playing a friendly match with Col. and Mrs. Nigel Bourke. The ace came on the short seventh hole, a distance of 142 yards.

EXPLANATION FOR YESTERDAY'S RIPLEY CARTOON
Harvard's Crimson—in telling how Harvard University's color came to be crimson, Charles W. Eliot, later president of the institution, indicates that but for his personal preference, the color might have been yellow or blue. When he went to purchase six Chinese kerchiefs for the 1888 varsity crew to wear about their heads, the salesman showed him yellow and blue ones as well as the crimson ones he finally selected.

Mark Twain's Typewriter—In his autobiography, Mark Twain asserts that the manuscript for "Tom Sawyer" was the first typed manuscript ever submitted to an editor. He used the machine only a short time, beginning in December, 1874, but he did use it long enough to establish his claim to making "the first application of the type machine to literature." The machine is on exhibition at the Mark Twain Museum, Hannibal, Missouri.

Jane Dixon Says:

MOTHERHOOD DOES NOT HAVE THE RIGHT TO DEPRIVE ITS CHILDREN OF LOVE AND HAPPINESS

It is hard to believe there are mothers who will smother their son's happiness rather than surrender him to the woman he loves; but such mothers do exist.

They are the human counterparts of the ogres who devour their young.

My Dear Miss Dixon: You are a woman, so perhaps you can tell me something about my problem which, I'll admit, has me at a dead end.

My mother and I always have been very close. In fact, at times I've felt her love bound me a bit too tightly. She actually seemed to be resentful of any close friendships I formed; not so much of boys and young men, but most decidedly of girls or young women. Even when I was a small boy she always impressed upon me that little girls were silly and caty, and later, when I began to go out with young people, that young women were frivolous and designing. If I showed any special attention to a girl, mother immediately took a dislike to her and managed to parade her faults until I lost interest in her.

Then, Miss Dixon, I met the real girl, the one and only girl. A lot of pickle-faces scoff at love at first sight. That's because they haven't been lucky enough to have it happen to them. It was love at first sight for both the one girl and for me. It wasn't just a flash in the pan either, for it happened more than a year ago; and for most of that time we've had to fight for our love, which has grown stronger every day, if that is possible.

My mother is clever and she is determined. She has used every ounce of her cleverness and her determination to separate us.

At first her efforts were under cover, but now she has come out into the open and declares we shall never marry. She insists that my one girl has taken me away from my mother, turned me against her, broken up our family. She hates my girl. It has come to a choice between my mother and the woman whom I love and want for my wife. I choose the woman I love. Am I heartless—an ungrateful son?—T. K. M.

Comment: If your mother's antagonism is based on nothing more than her devouring maternal love for you and her straining possessiveness, you are neither heartless nor ungrateful.

You owe a duty to yourself as a man. You owe a duty to the woman you love and who loves you. When selfishness and injustice interfere with the performance of your man duty, they must be overcome with reason or with ruthlessness.

Motherhood does not entail the right to deprive its child of God's gift—home and happiness.

MAYOR VIEWS POPPY MAKING

His Worship Has Generous Praise for Work Done at Red Cross Workshops

Mayor Andrew McGavin, after making an inspection yesterday of the work being done in the Red Cross Workshops, expressed his entire satisfaction with what he described as "an excellent work." The veterans were providing a helping hand to those who were not able to do all that was needed in competition in the world. These men needed some assistance and the Red Cross Workshop was lending this help. Mayor McGavin said it was his second visit to the place. He was impressed with the good work being done by the association in charge of the work.

It was unnecessary, said His Worship, to multiply words in expressing his satisfaction with the work and concluded with a wish for prosperity to those engaged in the laudable task.

Mayor McGavin was accompanied on the tour of the place by Ald. S. H. O'Neill, who is in charge of the workshop, Ald. W. L. Morgan and Ald. W. H. Davies.

POPPY-MAKING ROOM

A committee of the management of the workshops met the Mayor and party and escorted them through the various divisions of work carried on with special attention being paid to the poppy-making department. Included among the officers were Brigadier-General J. G. Austin, president; Lieut.-Col. R. S. Worsley, M.C., honorary secretary; Major C. Hennessey, chairman of the workshop; Frank Partridge, chairman of the Remembrance Day committee; C. A. Gill, secretary of the same committee and Lieut.-General Sir Percy Lake.

In the poppy room, where it was explained by Major O'Neill the work was carried on to supply all the returned soldiers' organizations throughout the whole Province of British Columbia, the visitors were met by J. G. Morley, who is in charge of the work. It was explained by Major O'Neill that 270,000 poppies were manufactured in the room last year and it appeared as likely that as many would be required this year. There were nine men employed in this work all the time, while in the busy season there were as many as fifteen or twenty required.

A SPECIAL POPPY
A special poppy, it was pointed out by Frank Partridge, the chairman of the committee, has been made on the request of many who operate motor cars, which has a rubber suction centre so that it may stick to the glass windshield of cars. It may also be used in show windows.

Major O'Neill pointed out that some twenty-eight persons were employed constantly in the workshops.

WHAT ABOUT THE MORNING COLD BATH?

It is hard to understand how the idea started that a cold tub or shower-bath the first thing in the morning was good for the health, hardened up the body and warded off disease.

As a matter of fact, the morning cold bath does much harm to a great many, not because there is anything wrong with a cold shower and a brisk rub first thing in the morning for a strong, hardy individual, but because the average individual is not strong and hardy.

The reason so many feel that, despite the discomfort and shock, the morning cold tub or shower-bath is helpful is that after the bath and rub there is a "bracing" reaction for a short time. However, one or two hours afterwards there is a feeling of tiredness and depression which they do not know is due to the cold bath.

Why is the morning cold shower a mistake for so many?
When we awake, the body is really at its lowest point of resistance, due for the most part to the need of food or fuel. The temperature is low, the blood pressure low, the heart beat slow and not as strong as at any other time. To make the body, in this low condition, undergo the "shock" of a cold bath is like kicking a person when he is down.

However, there are a few individuals about one in four, who, because of inborn or acquired resistance, can take this cold bath, have a brisk rub, feel a good reaction without any "let down" during the day.

An idea used by many who wish to get the refreshing reaction to the cold water without too much shock to the system is to run a few inches of hot water into the bath tub, stand in it for a minute to let the heat of the water strike the large blood-vessels of the ankles, and then step into the cold water shower. The heat of the water, by adding warmth to the blood and a little more speed to the circulation, prevents the severe shock of the cold water. A brisk rub down stimulates the circulation, and the benefit of the morning cold shower is felt all day.

Those who are thin, have thin blood, or a poor circulation would do well to avoid cold showers or tub baths unless prescribed by their physicians.
